

SAMPLE FEE PAYMENT & REFUND POLICY

All students must pay tuition costs at the applicable rate, a program fee, the computer and technology fee, and a one time program deposit. Students using Temple arranged housing must pay the housing charges. All students must pay other program fees. In addition, some courses carry fees for either excursions or materials.

PAYMENT IS DUE AS FOLLOWS:

Program Deposit: A deposit of $500 is payable upon acceptance. A due date for the deposit will appear on the student's acceptance letter. The $500 program deposit is credited to the student's account, and will appear on the student's bill as a credit.

Tuition, Housing and other Fees: Tuition and all other fees are payable when billed according to Temple's standard billing practice.

At the time the deposit is paid, students should notify Temple if any part of their fees will be paid by another institution or agency in the form of a grant, scholarship, loan, or other type of financial aid. Anticipated restrictions on the applicability of these funds should also be noted (e.g., funds which may be used toward tuition only). Students must supply the name and address of each financial source, the amount available and the date the money will be available. In the event that anticipated funds are not remitted, students will be responsible for the full financial commitment outlined above.

FALL/SPRING/SUMMER TUITION AND FEES:

Tuition rates and costs are subject to change. The Bursar's office typically announces tuition rates for the upcoming academic year during the month of July preceding the start of the Fall semester in August and this page will be updated according to that schedule.

Per university policy, Temple students will be charged their home school tuition regardless of participation in a program offered through the Klein College of Media & Communication. See the Bursar's website to calculate your tuition rate.

All students must pay tuition costs at the applicable rate, a program fee, the university fee, and a one-time program deposit. Students using Temple arranged housing must pay the housing charges. All students must pay other program fees, including for example, fees for excursions or materials.

Tuition for full-time undergraduates (12-18 credits): $xxxxx*

*Please note that the tuition rates listed above are simply an example of the applicable tuition rates for a student whose home school is the Klein College of Media and Communication. All students are strongly encouraged to calculate their individual tuition rate.

Fees (for all students):

GO Program Fee: $xxxx*
University Services Fee: $xxx

Estimated totals of billed expenses (for undergraduate Klein students):

PA state residents:

Out-of-state residents:

Included in the program fee:

- Student support from Klein Global Opportunities and at partner on-site
- Comprehensive on-site orientation
- Comprehensive international medical insurance
- Excursions
- In country transit
- Shared student housing in on-campus accommodations
- 24-hour emergency support

Other estimated costs not included on Temple Bill:

- Passport: $130 (for a new one)
- Student Visa fees: $425 (subject to change)
- Meals: $2,500 (an average for a semester). This will vary depending on style of living.
- Daily personal expenses: $2,500
- Cell phone rental estimate for 3 months: $150
- Roundtrip airfare from Philadelphia: $800 - $1,000

Estimated total for additional out of pocket expenses: $6,500 - $6,705

REFUND POLICIES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

In order to determine a student's eligibility for refunds of any fees, Klein Global Opportunities must first receive written notice of withdrawal from the student either by a signed letter or email. Klein Global Opportunities cannot accept notice of withdrawal by any other means, including phone calls or letters from parents. The only exception to this would be if a student were incapacitated. In this case the student's parents or guardians should contact Klein Global Opportunities.

Program Deposit(s): The program deposit(s) are nonrefundable should a student withdraw from the program.

Housing and Program Fees: Please note that Temple makes a commitment on behalf of students immediately after the due date of students' online Administration Form. If a student withdraws before the start of the program, Temple will attempt to obtain a refund of the housing and program costs, but students need to know that a refund may not be possible and students may be liable for the full costs of the program and housing and will be billed accordingly. By the time students arrive in London, Temple has made irrevocable commitments on their behalf. Students leaving before the end of the semester will receive no refund.

The following Refund Policy is strictly adhered to:

If a student withdraws prior to December 1, 2017, the student will receive their deposit as a credit on the spring 2018 bill to remain on campus.

If a student withdraws after December 1, 2017, the student will be subject to cover any unrecoverable costs paid on their behalf.

If a student withdraws on the first day and thereafter of the program start date, no refund will be issued.

Tuition and University Fee: Students will be charged 100% of their semester bill unless a withdrawal form is processed by a registration office of the university by the Drop/Add deadline date. The Drop/Add deadline date is published in the Class Schedule each semester and is at the end of the second week of the semester. Students who process their withdrawal form by the deadline date will be issued a 100% refund of tuition and the university fee.

For Temple's full refund policy concerning tuition, the university services fees, and course fees please review the Temple University Bulletin.

Temple reserves the right to amend prices to reflect changes in economic conditions.